January 2019

Dear Long Island teachers,

Roslyn Code Club invites you and your students to attend our second annual 12-hour high school hackathon, called Roslyn Code Overload, on February 9, 2018 from 9am to 9pm. This is a coding event where students of various skill sets and coding levels will come together to collaborate intensively on various novel projects, ranging from websites to mobile apps. We will have an array of workshops and mentors and at the end, students will have the opportunity to present their projects and compete for prizes.

If you and your students are interested in participating, please find attached a registration form. As per school policy, an adult chaperone must accompany students to this event. The chaperone can be either a teacher or parent but must be signed off by a school administrator. After you have completed the form, please email a copy to hello@roslyncode.tech.

For more information about the event you can visit <https://roslyncode.tech/overload/>. If you have any questions please feel free to contact us at hello@roslyncode.tech.

Thank you,

Brian Ciavarella
